Do you like to draw? We are looking for young artists to design an eye-catching poster to celebrate the reopening of Pitzhanger Manor & Gallery in Spring 2019.

Located in Ealing Broadway in Walpole Park, Pitzhanger Manor was a family country house where the famous architect

Sir John Soane and his wife Eliza lived with their sons John and George, and dog, Fanny.

Soane travelled around Italy when he was younger, taking inspiration from the buildings he saw for the design of Pitzhanger. He even built pretend Roman ruins in his garden and painted the ceiling in the breakfast room to look like the open roof of the famous Pantheon temple in Rome!

Over the last three years we have been working hard to restore the house. We open next spring and look forward to welcoming you at Pitzhanger; your visit might even inspire you to become an artist or architect!
